 - Apparel – Alexia working on finalizing designs so we can get price quotes
- Huimei will be in touch with SAC to make sure we can do a bake sale
- Alexia will send out a bake sale “sign-up” sheet, this will allow us to get an estimate of who is planning what baked good and how much of it they plan on bringing. Additionally, we will have everyone write down a price estimate so we know how much in AAPS funds to budget for.
- We are hoping to have a “Book Club” type coffee hour April 12, so students will be able to email Huimei or me and we can make a powerpoint. Basically, people will be sending in what books they have been reading lately and how they rank those books so we can share our book suggestions with everyone!
- Huimei & Claire will be sending out/discussing with the second year students: a time when it would be the most beneficial to do a qual practice session
