- Fundraising !!
  - Bake Sale – Before final PharmD block Exams - April 25th
  - Apparel – Alexia working on finalizing price quotes
- We are going to have a "Book Club" type coffee hour April 12, so students will be able to email Huimei or me and we can make a PowerPoint. Basically, people will be sending in what books they have been reading lately and how they rank those books so we can share our book suggestions with everyone! We hope to carry on this "book club" idea throughout the summer as well.
- Claire is going to email the post qual students about their availability to help with the qual practice sessions during the first week of the summer months – after this the qualifying students can choose day/times that work for them to practice

3. Motions

- We will be doing practice qual sessions throughout the summer months. We will most likely have a practice session during the first week of the month (June, July, and August). These sessions will be blocked off for two hours so that we have plenty of time for the qualifying student(s) to practice and/or ask questions about their presentations.
  - Motion: Huimei; Second: Claire; Results: Pass (unanimous)
- Bake sale April 25th (set up @ 11:00 am, and take down at like 1:30/2pm), we will have an option for students to be reimbursed after the bake sale
